MIDDLE TENNESSEE STATE COLLEGE

Murfreesboro, Tennessee

"The College of Individual Opportunity"

MISS E. MAE SAUNDERS

Dedication

In grateful appreciation, we, the staff of the 1953 MID-LANDER, wish to dedicate this volume in recognition of the many faithful years of service given this college by Miss Tommie Reynolds, assistant professor of Mathematics, and Miss E. Mae Saunders, assistant professor of Music. Both have been with the college since MTSC was founded in 1911 as Middle Tennessee Normal.

Both have watched the college grow from a two-year normal school offering only teacher certification to a fully accredited four-year college offering pre-professional training. B.S., B.A. and M.A. degrees. Since few people can boast such a record, we feel that it is only fitting that we offer this small tribute to two of our most deserving teachers.

PRESIDENT Q. M. SMITH

In 1939, Q. M. Smith became president of MTSC. It is really not necessary to elaborate on his years in this position, for his outstanding record of improvements for this school is a much greater tribute than words. During his fourteen years here, the school has constantly marched forward, and today it can claim its place at the top with the very best—all due to President Smith's ingenuity and endless endeavors. The faculty has more than doubled in size, and student enrollment is at its peak. Actual acreage of the campus has been practically tripled. Every department has expanded. Foday, the school offers the Bachelor of Science, Bachelor of Arts, and Master of Arts degrees.

The maximum plan of success has been in our building program—it stands above all else. During President Smith's administration, four units of the Industrial Arts Department, the Memorial Health and Physical Education Building, the Natatorium, a new stadium and track, the Agriculture Center of three units, the Airport, the Student Union Building, and a new men's dorm have been completed. A new women's dorm is under construction, and plans for a new library have already been approved. Over one hundred housing units have been erected for the veteran students, and the ROTC armory has been established.

President Smith has done a magnificent job and is to be highly praised. He has set a pattern of leadership which should challenge every student.

DEAN BEASIEY

N. G. Beasley is one of the main spokes of the ever turning MTSC campus wheel. When a student has academic problems that need discussion, correction, or guidance, Dean Beasley is always available to assist. His official title is Dean of the College. He received his B.S. and M.A. degrees from George Peabody College for Teachers. Dean Beasley is a professor of Education, but for the past twenty-five years he has efficiently discharged the duties of Dean of the College. Dean Beasley's prestige is far reaching, and in evidence is his twenty years of consecutive service as secretary of the Middle Tennessee Education Association.

DEAN JAMES

Clayton L. James received two years of his education at David Lipscomb College, his A.B. degree from Union University, his M.S. degree from the University of Fennessee, and further graduate training at Columbia University. His official title here is Dean of Students. With the many students we have on campus, each one representing a different personality, college life often becomes conflicting and involved. Dean James is a friend, in every sense of the word, to every student and is always willing and eager to assist students with their problems no matter how large or small. He helps to direct and co-ordinate almost all of the social life on the MTSC campus. He is a capable leader we could not do without.

REGISTRAR

The Registrar, William B. Judd, is a graduate of Middle Tennessee State, but at his graduation our school bore the title of State Teachers College. He received the M.A. degree from George Peabody College. Mr. Judd has a very difficult job. He is responsible for the recording of the grades and credits of the entire student body. It is no simple matter to handle that many records. He also notifies students of their academic rating. In his twenty-six years as Registrar, Mr. Judd has mastered his job as no one else could have done.

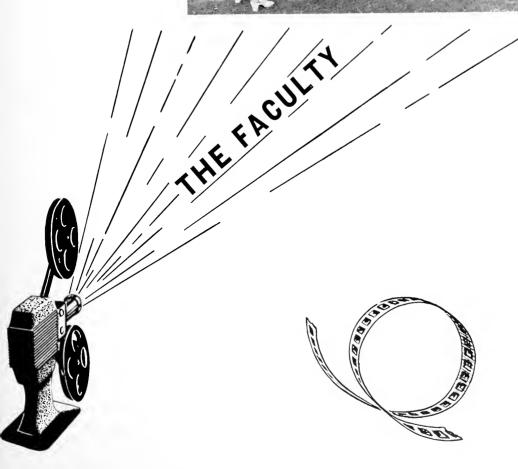

BURSAR

The Bursar's office is always busy and it is easy to see why—money. T. B. Woodmore directs all the transactions of this office, a duty very difficult to perform; but his good judgment has kept Middle Tennessee State functioning financially well. The complexities of this office begin with registration and continue throughout the entire year. All requisitions must pass through Mr. Woodmore's hands. He is also a member of the student employment and publications committees.

The very capable business staff assisting Mr. Woodmore are: James Jackson, assistant bursar: Virginia Mason Elrod and Jeanine Wood Cross, secretaries.

The Bad and the Beautiful

EDUCATION DEPARTMENT

Middle Tennessee State has acquired the reputation of being one of the best institutions for turning out teachers of the highest quality. The Education Department has played a dominant role in this progress. It has met the challenge of modern educational needs and demands and has conquered it well. Students receive excellent instruction in all phases of teaching, so that they are well prepared to meet any classroom situation. Actual practice is allorded when students practice teaching in either the Training School or Gentral High School. The importance and value of this practice training cannot be emphasized enough, whether it is on elementary or secondary level.

Courses in guidance, psychology, and principles of education are offered that not only test academic skills, but train the mind and develop the attitudes that are necessary to produce good teachers. Almost ninety per cent of the graduating class each year can qualify for teaching certificates. The outstanding record that many of our graduates have attained clearly demonstrates the ability possessed by the faculty of this department. Pictured, left to right are: Mr. Joseph Howard, Mr. Robert Adkins, Miss Mary Hall, Dean N. C. Beasley, Dr. Will Bowdoin, Dr. Howard Kirksey, Mr. Roy Simpson, Dr. Ralph Dunham, Mr. Hubert Swann, Mr. Bealer Smotherman, Dr. Belt S. Keathley.

SOCIAL STUDIES DEPARTMENT

The Social Science Department is the largest department on the campus. Geography, history, political science, economics, and sociology are offered and provide the student with a wide range of choice for a major. Students may major in one particular held, such as history, or take a certain number of hours in almost all of the subjects. The department is headed by Dr. C. C. Sins, whose capable leadership is responsible for much of the department's progress since 1922, when he came here.

It is through the study of past civilizations and our present system of government that we really learn to appreciate the privileges and liberties that are with us today. Democracy functions best with educated people who understand its process and organization. This could be considered the aim of the Social Studies Department.

LANGUAGE ARTS

The Department of Languages includes English, speech, and foreign languages. The institutional requirements for a B.S. or B.A. include 18 hours of English. This department is one of the highest ranking, academically speaking. English majors must complete a minimum of 15 hours and pass a written and oral comprehensive exam during their last quarter as a senior. An English major has been well instructed in poetry, drama, composition, and the many other worthwhile and interesting subjects provided by the highly trained faculty.

Miss Elizabeth Schardt directs learning activities in Spanish and French. She has made several tours abroad, and her vast experiences and travels enrich every class, giving the students actual lacts and background for studies in this held.

Journalism is also part of the curriculum of this department. Students become acquainted with techniques of editing and writing. This knowledge can be transferred to actual practice on the year book, THE MIDLANDER, and the school newspaper, The Sidelines.

Speech is also included in the Language Department. MTSC is very fortunate in having Joseph O'Shea from Northwestern University as head of this department. His vast experience and integrity has added much to the Speech Arts Department this past year.

Of the six departments offering a minor in graduate work, the Department of Languages can claim its place. Courses offered on the graduate level are specifically aimed at even greater prospects in advancing secondary teaching in this state.

MATHEMATICS

The Math Department today is headed by Horace G. Jones. Also teaching this traditional subject are Roy Simpson and Miss Tommic Reynolds, who has been an instructor at MTSC for 12 years. The four year math course is offered to any student who chooses that field as a major. Such courses as business arithmetic, math of finance, calculus, geometry, and many more are provided. Also available in a year's work is surveying and one methods course in the teaching of mathematics. This full program keeps these able professors constantly busy.

HOME ECONOMICS DEPARTMENT

This department attracts mainly female students. However, boxs may, in the end, benefit most from the courses it offers, for it is here that many girls learn the techniques of successful homemaking. Foods and clothing, nutrition, home nursing, textiles, and other practical courses are offered. Students may receive a B.S. degree upon completion of a major in Home Economics.

BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

The Business Administration Department became official in 1939. Until that date it was an annexation of the Social Science Department. It has expanded into its own, and now provides advanced stenography, business law, methods and materials in accounting and stenography, advanced accounting, advertising, auditing, salesmanship, and business education courses. The four divisions—Accounting, Secretarial Science, Business Education, and Business Law—were combined to form the Business Administration Department. This is one of the most popular departments with the student body, for it produces a large number of majors each year. The aims of the Business Administration Department are to certify graduates to teach any business subject on the secondary level, preparation for worthwhile business positions, and knowledge for operating self-owned enterprises. E. W. Midgett heads this department. His teaching companions are Mrs. Henrietta Myers Wade and Miss Elaine Stepp.

GRADUATE DIVISION

MTSC is proud to light the first candle on the birthday cake of the Graduate Division. A long anticipated dream has come true with greater results than hoped for. Its lounders truly leef like new lathers lostering the birth of a greater educational advancement for the school. A Master's degree insures the Tennessee teacher of an increase in salary.

The graduate students receive a major in Education and a minor in the fields of English, Social Science, Industrial Arts, Science, or Physical Education. This constitutes a broad curriculum.

Dr. Howard G. Kirksey, head of the Graduate Division, is a distinguished educator. His advanced philosophies and methods have played a major role in the organization and functioning of this department. All of the mentioned departments have added the graduate courses to their curriculum to meet the needs of the graduate students and produce even more capable teachers. A large percentage of students enrolled in graduate work are, at the same time, still carrying on their jobs in the classroom. During classwork here on the campus, they are able to share valuable experiences with one another, as well as to derive much information from the able instructors. A blue ribbon is due the Graduate Division which has shown nothing but progress since its origin.

The photo at the top shows a graduate class in progress. The photo at the lower left pictures the six men who were first to receive the Master of Arts degree here at MTSC in 1951. There are, first row, left to right: William Leavitt, Clay C. Coble, Gordon Travers, Second row: Guy A. Scott, Thomas G. King, N. A. Link.

THE LIBRARY

More than 38,000 books, additional bound volumes, periodicals and newspapers in the MTSC library provide a broad selection of reference and source material as well as recreational reading. Constantly expanding, the annual accretion list includes hundreds of books each month—all designed to enrich the curriculum and increase student knowledge.

Until recently the library was also the center of the college audio-visual materials. At the present time most of this equipment has been cataloged and stored for ready access in the administration building educational department.

Members of the library staff are Miss Catherine Clark, Ambrose Easterly and Miss Virginia Wilkinson, Miss Alvie Anderson is secretary for the library. There are 11 student assistants.

Near the periodical room in the basement of the library is located the regional library headquarters. This library serves seven counties and is staffed by Miss Maureen Williams, regional librarian, Miss Mary Elizabeth Wallace, assistant regional librarian and Miss Emily Runion, secretary.

CHEMISTRY—PHYSICS—BIOLOGY DEPARTMENTS

Students interested in chemistry, and pre-professional vocations receive superior training in their held under the guidance of Dr. J. Eldred Wiser, head of the department, and Mr. James Setfill.

An excellent physical plant is available for the use of the students, a separate laboratory being provided for each year of chemistry except physical chemistry. In addition to these excellent lacilities, advanced students have access to the use of special equipment such as the Beckman Spectrophotometer, Photoelectric Calorimeter, and Able Refractometer.

Occupying the entire third floor of the science building is the Biology Department. In this held the Ireshman comes in contact with a very important phase of higher learningliving material. Majors and minors may be acquired in biology with the required courses of embryology, zoology, botany, genetics, and others having been completed. The professors can exercise their ability in the adequately equipped classrooms and laboratories. Students can carry on private study in some of the individual rooms. Biology offers growing interest for those with professional or industrial goals.

PHYSICS DEPARTMENT

The student who is interested in a brighter and more prosperous luture usually finds the way to the physics laboratory. With the modern trend toward scientific development, the physics major can be assured of a very good job. The many long hours of study produce concrete results.

Douglas Shields instructs the students in such problems as measuring amounts of heat from certain solid materials when they become ignited, electrical wiring, speed of light and sound, atomic energy, and many other complicated problems of modern life. The very best in equipment is furnished so that the student has first-hand experience in working on his problems. In freshman courses, all students participate on the same experiments, but in the advanced courses, each student has a different set of experiments given him at the beginning of each quarter which he is expected to report on to the rest of the class after his work is completed.

HOUSE MOTHERS

There are few mothers who have so many children who bear so little resemblance to each other, desire so much attention, and have such complicated problems. All these—and many more—are the everyday responsibilities facing the house mothers. In Julibiling their jobs so well, they are guided by patience and understanding in every decision they have to make. Their wisdom inspires each student to make his own decisions. Even with all this weight bearing heavily upon their shoulders, the house mothers always have a friendly smile and a kind word for each of their "children." They have complete charge of their respective dormitories; from left to right are; standing, Mrs. Evelyn Felder, and Mrs. Katherine Parks, seated; Mrs. Jesse Sullivan, and Mrs. Frances Pitts.

MUSIC DEPARTMENT

MTSC is proud of the improvements and changes that it has made. The Music Department was not to be left out of the changes occurring and has come up with a rejuvenated building all its own. This step has done much to improve the merits of this department. There are sufficient sound-proof practice rooms, large classrooms, and rehearsal halls. The music department at MTSC is one of the best in any Southern college or university. The marching band received fame and recognition not only on the held, but in numerous newspapers, and was the subject of one feature article. The new director of the band this year is James K. Van Slyke, and he is to be saluted for a splendid job.

Students can receive a major in music by completing the required number of hours, while a fundamentals course in music is necessary for any elementary certilicate.

Mr. Neil Wright heads this harmonious department and is assisted by seven other capable instructors. Students can receive credit for courses in band, orchestra, thorus, private lessons, and class instruction. Utiliated with this department are the Sacred Harp Singers, the Trio and Pi Mu Sigma, a professional honorary society. There is also the campus dance band, the Townsmen, which is very popular with the student body. The music department provides us with some very entertaining programs in assembly, and their senior recitals are worthy of attendance by every MTSC student.

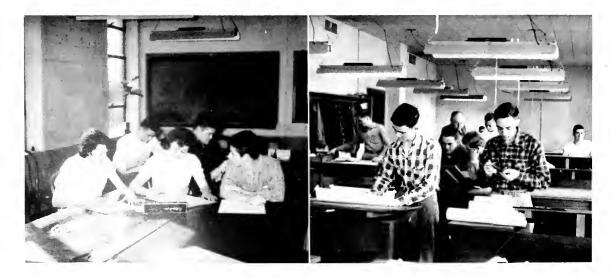

INDUSTRIAL ARTS DEPARTMENT

MTSC is proud of its Industrial Arts Department and there is sufficient cause. The LA Building is one of the linest in any Southern college or university. It comprises six unit shops and a general shop with hundreds of thousands of dollars worth of modern equipment that turns out linished products in record time.

The sheet metal shop shown here is just one of the many locations in the IA Building where many tedious hours of labor are spent—and where many precious hours of knowledge are consequently acquired.

The machine shop, directed by James S. Gonce, lurthers the LA majors along the way. As shown in the picture at the left, it certainly is no place for a man with a weak mind and unsteady hands.

The wood shop is directed by Mr. Phillip Dalton where students make many types of useful and valuable wooden articles. The art of tooling is perfected here, with the students receiving the best possible instruction.

PHYSICAL ED DEPARTMENT

Every student is required to take six quarters of physical education for completion of his school work toward attaining his degree. It is a requirement that all students enjoy for they are alforded many worthwhile classes—golf, bowling, tennis, swimming, volley-ball, basketball, badminton, dancing—and many others. Many courses are offered in theory and practice of the active sports which any student may take who desires to teach. A student may get a major or minor in Physical Education after completing the necessary courses.

The department offers scholarships to those with unusual abilities for participation in football and basketball. This opportunity makes it possible for many to attend college, who perhaps might not have been able to do so-plus providing MTSC with some very fine teams with high spirit instilled by the coaches.

The health courses are a very worthwhile and litting diversion of the physical education department. To be perfectly exact, we should refer to this as the health, recreation, and physical education department, for it certainly is a balanced combination. The health courses are required for an elementary certificate.

The capable directions in this department have tostered a line intramural program—the likes of which have never before been equaled at MTSC. The students have been divided into teams and compete in each seasonal sport. This program has aroused great enthusiasm among the entire student body.

MILITARY SCIENCE

When the Department of the Vrmy designated Middle Tennessee State College as the location for a unit of the Reserve Officer's Training Corps, new opportunities and objectives arose for students here. Channels for entirely different areas of skill and leadership began to develop in areas of specialization realistically pertinent in their timeliness.

Our corps is one of the eight Branch General outlits in the United States. There are now over two-hundred and lifty cadets in the ranks of the battalion. This year Advanced Course cadets go to approximately 11 Army installations in various sections of the United States for six weeks of training.

An ROTC cadet may be deferred to complete four years of college, and graduates are offered commissions as Second Lieutenants in the Organized Reserve. Commissions in the Regular Army are offered to a selected number of graduates. That participation in the ROTC program is a desirable method of gaining a college education and serving one's country can be expressed by the fact that approximately 400,000 ROTC graduates served in grades from Second Lieutenant to Brigadier General during World War H.

The Licilities of the MTSC unit have been described as some of the best in the Southeastern area. Indoor rifle range, complete offices, classrooms, and storage space covering 10,800 square feet are all housed in the basement floor of the Alumni Memorial Health and Physical Education Building. Acres of drill and field maneuver area and seven well-equipped shops are immediately adjacent: heavy mobile equipment is stored in a convenient armory nearby.

Members of the ROTC have the opportunity to become members of the Cadet Corps Band. They may also quality as members of the Corps Rifle Leann, competing with other college units and fiting the Hearst Matches.

TRAINING SCHOOL

The Training School is affiliated with the college, offering the opportunity for students to do practice teaching on the elementary level. Its importance can never be over-emphasized. The training received here under the very capable and alert faculty is of more practical benefit to the MTSC student than any other experience during the four year span in attaining a degree.

Here is a real opportunity for students to put to use, in typical situations, the knowledge they have received. Many of the problems the practice teacher faces will be the same he will come up against when he has a teaching position of his own. These problems can be handled much easier and more accurately because of this practical experience here. The Training School maintains very high educational standards and inspires us as future teachers to higher ideals and goals. Our success here is a glimpse at the future when we will be completely on our own initiative.

Students are alforded the opportunity to become acquainted with and use the materials and equipment in order to achieve the best results from their work. Students have conferences with their respective supervising teachers to clear up many of their problems and coordinate their work.

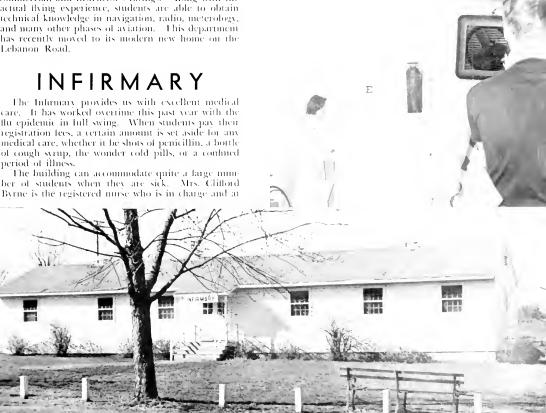

AVIATION DEPARTMENT

Aviation has become a very important part of the curriculum on our campus. Much of the popularity and success of the aviation department is due to the very line instructor-Mr. Miller Lauier-whose unceasing efforts and cooperation have made the aviation courses valuable and sought after by so many of the students. Through the extensive training which the students receive, they are able to obtain their private, commercial, and instructor's ratings. Along with the actual flying experience, students are able to obtain technical knowledge in navigation, radio, meterology, and many other phases of aviation. This department has recently moved to its modern new home on the Lebanon Road.

care. It has worked overtime this past year with the the epidemic in full swing. When students pay their registration fees, a certain amount is set aside for any medical care, whether it be shots of penicillin, a bottle of cough syrup, the wonder cold pills, or a confined period of illness.

EXTENSION SERVICE

The Division of Field Services was originated to serve more adequately the needs of our graduates and professional people in the area.

One of the chief functions of this division is to assist superintendents and supervisors in providing an in-service training program through extension classes.

A second function of this division is to keep in touch with the personnel needs of employers, both in educational areas and in industrial situations. This need is passed on to the seniors and the alumni who are seeking employment. Thus, placement becomes the responsibility of the Division of Field Services.

Any time there is contact with any individual or groups off the campus, public relations are involved. It is the responsibility of this division to foster desirable public relations with individuals and groups within our area. These are not only allowed to come to the campus for meetings, but are cordially encouraged to do so.

Any requests for services such as speakers, contest judges, or programs, come to this office, and an effort is made to provide such services as are requested. This division accepts applications for student employment and refer applicants to persons desiring student assistants.

Finally, this division conducts a program of recruitment by visiting high school students, by inviting and supervising groups of them to visit our campus, and by distributing literature and information about the college.

As seen above, the responsibilities of this office are varied, as they include the offering of extension classes, the placement of graduates and alumni, public relations, student employment, and recruitment.

AGRICULTURE DEPARTMENT

The Agriculture Department of Middle Tennessee State College has as its primary objective the training of those students interested in teaching agriculture in the high schools of our state and the preparation of other students for successful careers in practical farming. This objective forms the foundation of the building of better rural communities by better farming and improved farm living in the future.

In addition to this major objective, the department prepares some students for employment in agricultural services, such as extension work, farm and home administration, and soil conservation; trains some to serve as technicians or salesmen for feed, seed, fertilizer, or farm equipment companies; and trains others who plan to continue their education in graduate helds in the science of agriculture.

The department also aims at giving sound fundamental training to those who will spend their lives serving rural people in various helds of endeavor to the end that they may better understand those with whom they work and that they may render a fuller service in their chosen held.

The expansion of the Agriculture Department was authorized after World War H. It now consists of three buildings, one with three classrooms, storerooms, and offices: a wood-working shop, well equipped for farm wood working; and a metal working shop equipped for blacksmith work and general tepair and maintenance of all types of farm machinery and equipment. The center is located adjacent to the farm so that the farm may serve as a laboratory for many phases of the agriculture work.

VET VILLAGE

Directly behind our campus is a little community made up of small frame, barrack-like apartments and numerous trailers. This is where our married tolks live.

The village was organized immediately after the World War II to accommodate veterans and their families who were attending school. Now, however, not only veterans but anyone can live in these apartments and trailers as long as at least one member of the family attends school... our school, of course.

The center of interest is the Community Grocery where the men folks gather for a game of ping-pong (the recreation room is built in with the store), and the women gather their groceries.

The people in Vet Village are very proud of their small community. It was just recently that they held their election for their Ideal Vet Village Family. Mr. and Mrs. Bob Veach and daughter Vickie were elected. You can see in the picture at right that their choice was obviously wise,

STEAM PLANT

The steam plant and its operators are often overlooked, but their ellorts are always present. This centrally located heating system provides every building with the necessary heat and hot water. Without it, campus life would be chaos. The thoroughness of its job cannot be stressed enough. New heating equipment has been installed and the building completely modernized since World War II.

MAINTENANCE

MTSC takes great pride in the fact that it has a beautiful campus. Our landscaping crew helps maintain this tradition by keeping everything green and growing. Their work is not limited to the spring and summer, but is part of a year-round program. Neatness, cleanliness, and the thousand and one odd jobs tall to the janitors. Evidence of their thorough job is all around us. The cooks, needless to say, are indispensable. There are many problems attached to the maintenance department, but it has shown much aptitude in performing its duties and responsibilities.

STUDENT UNION BUILDING

We take much pride in our Student Union Building which has only been in existence since the Winter Quarter of 1952. Since then, we have had our cafeteria, lunchroom, bookstore and postoffice in the building.

It didn't take us long to take advantage of the spacious founge, provided especially for relaxation, to chat with our friends. We are also proud of our recreation half located on the third floor. There we have ping-pong, billiands and cards, chess and checker tables. A juke box is provided also for informal dancing.

Of course when we want to dress up in our formal attire there is our modern beautiful. Ferniessee Room, our pride and joy of a ballroom, which certainly makes our dances successful.

A photographic studio is also located in "our" building. During the Spring Quarter "Film Forum" was lold and brought to our campus some of the better films.

Y's autom can see that the students of MTSC are indeed proud of the Student Building, which we claim as truly ones.

THE COLLEGIATE

This is the Collegiate, which is better known to most of us as the lunchroom. Here "friend meets friend" and talks over the latest happenings on the campus. This is the place where many speud leisure time, and even more eat many a hearty breaklast because they slept through an early class.

The lunchroom is well noted for delicious hamburgers and milk shakes.

CAFETERIA

The College Caleteria is also located in our Student Union Building. Mrs. Elizabeth Jackson and Mrs. Irene Robinson serve as our dictitians.

A large serving room and attractive, roomy dining room combine to make our caleteria one of the most desirable places on the campus.

Mrs. Jackson and Mrs. Robinson are assisted by student help who serve the delicious food, and make a pleasant atmosphere for the students.

SECRETARIES

The secretaries might be called the operation force in action. It requires a great deal of business skill and ability to keep MTSC functioning without hiction, and it is the unceasing efforts of the secretaries that cause everything to operate so smoothly. In the following picture are, from left to right: Miss Barbara Wood, Mrs. Charlotte Heinze, Mrs. Carolyn Holloway, Mrs. Jeanine Gross, Miss Vriginia Mason Ffrod, Miss Bonnic McHenery, Mrs. Epps Mathews, Jr., Mrs. Margaret Bain, and Mrs. Eyelyn Turney.

BOOKSTORE

The Bookstore, located on the hist floor of the Student Union Building, is where we purchase our textbooks and other classroom supplies. We also find current magazines and "pocketbooks" available here as well as greeting cards for every occasion. Mr. Phillips and his assistants certainly pay us a favor by keeping the bookstore well supplied at all times,

POST OFFICE

This is the place where we all come sometime during the day. If it were not for our efficient Miss Iree McElroy what would we do? With a smile on her face and a friendly word for everyone she still has time to get the mail out for the eager students awaiting a certain letter from home.

Monkey Business

ASSOCIATED STUDENT BODY

An organization on the campus with which every student should be very familiar is the Associated Student Body. The ASB is an all-student organization in which it is possible to seek out and bring to light the needs and desires of the students as individuals, as groups, and as a unified body. It strives to unify interests, opinions, and methods of procedures within both the student body and the faculty. The spirit of the ASB is that of individual responsibility for and cooperative support of the ideals that are in harmony with democracy.

The legislative branch, or Congress, is the student law-making body. Congress is composed of representatives from the various classes. The vice-president of the ASB serves as chairman of Congress. Seated in the Congress picture, from left to right are: Lenora Barber, Norma Littleton, Dimple Moncriel, Lloyd Knowles, Jean Elmore, Clifford Brothers, and Yvonne McFolin. Pictured standing are: Marrianne White, Lucy Hale, Ralph Daniels, Jimmy Jackson, Billy Hix, and Mary Jo Dillon.

SUPREME COURT

The judicial branch is the Supreme Court. It consists of a Chief Justice, Attorney-General, and one representative each from the sophomore, junior, and senior classes and Vet-Village. The Supreme Court handles difficult cases that councils and Congress cannot take care of alone.

GIRLS' DORMITORY COUNCIL

To the Girls' Dormitory Council falls one of the most difficult jobs on the campus. These elected representatives from each class must have a B average before they can hold this position. Their duty is to decide the fate of their sister students who have in some way abused or broken the rules and regulations that govern dormitory life. They can render a decision of "campus" or a certain number of demerits. Shown Irom left to right, are: standing, Margaret Tucker, Emma Jean Swan, and Lucy Hale. Scated, Elizabeth Hay, Cornelia Swain, Peggy Marlin, and Jo Akin.

BOYS' DORMITORY COUNCIL.

The Boys' Dormitory Council has its share of problems, too. Any student who desires to move into Smith Hall during the year must submit his name to this group. Its main function is to assist Mr. Cunningham in the many problems that arise in the dormitory. This council helps to enforce the rules and regulations of Smith Hall. These gentlemen have performed a very worthwhile service for the other residents of their dorm. The members of the Boys' Dormitory Council are: from left to right, standing: Garner Ezell, Carmen Gibson, Tommy Scott, Bob Cotter, and Jim Lofton. Seated are: Eddie Akin, Glen Wakeheld, and Howard Alsup.

PI MU SIGMA

The Pi Mu Sigma is the honorary organization for music majors on our campus. Membership is by invitation and election. Only music majors who have hirst chair in the band or orchestra or those who are doing recital work are eligible.

The purposes of this group are: to promote a high moral level among professional musicians in order to maintain the dignity of the music profession; to promote a high degree of efficiency in musicianship among the members and as a secondary effect, among all the music students of our school; and finally to create better understanding and social contact among its members.

Officers are: President, Jimmie Lou Tanksley; Vice-President, Bobby Martin; Secretary, Gay Jennings; Freasurer, Greta Moore.

Midlander

Before you is the MIDLANDER staff who had the thrill of seeing a glimmer of an idea emerge into being and watch it develop into the pattern of a yearbook. It was hard work, but welf worth the effort. The staff this year had really something to live up to. Last year the MIDLANDER received the Medalist rating from the Columbia Scholastic Press. This is the highest honor that can be received. We certainly have good reason to be proud of our yearbook.

DRAMATIC CLUB

"Spectator, this machine you see here wound up to the Iull in such a way that the spring will slowly unwind the whole length of a human life, is one of the most perfect constructed by the infernal gods for the mathematical destruction of a mortal." This was the theme of the Buchanan Players' most ambitious production for the year 1952-53. "The Infernal Machine," a Greek tragedy, adapted by Jean Cocteau, gave seventeen students an opportunity to show their acting ability.

However, acting alone is not the loundation of the Buchanan Players. The effective lighting of "The Internal Machine," the difficult wagon set of "Ladies in Retirement," and the numerous properties for "Bell, Book, and Candle" all emphasize the importance of the backstage workers to a successful production.

The Buchanan Players opened their season with the fall production "Ladies in Retirement," a tense drama of a woman's effort to give her sisters a home, set in the moors of England.

The Spring production was "Bell, Book and Candle," a modern comedy of a witch who lost her powers by falling in love.

In addition to these productions, the new director Joseph J. O'Shea initiated the arena theatre. This new form of dramatic entertainment allords members of the club experience in acting and also in directing. I'wo plays produced in the arena theatre were "The Browning Version" and "I Phoenix Too Frequent," Both plays were directed by students and attendance was by invitation only

SIGMA CLUB

The Sigma Club was founded as a research organization in 1927 by Neal Frazier, who was a professor of English at MTSC. This Research Club later became what is now known as the Sigma Club. Membership is by invitation from the club and has for its purpose the bringing in of choice young men who expect to graduate from this college and engage in business and professional pursuits when they are graduated. Scholarship, leadership, and character are the qualities considered in electing candidates.

Sigma takes pride in its 111 members taken in during its twenty-six years of existence on this campus. It lists among its membership some very outstanding doctors, dentists, lawyers, business men, teachers, and school administrators. One of its members is now serving on the Tennessee State Board of Education.

The culminating activity of the club is its annual banquet held each year during the month of May when all old members are invited back to the campus for an exchange of experiences.

TAU OMICRON

In the fall of 1930, a faculty committee was appointed by the President of the college to consider the problem of organizing an honorary society for young ladies, a need being left for such an organization in this institution. A small group of the most outstanding girls was selected as charter members.

The purpose of the organization is to bring into closer fellowship a group of the highest type of girls for mutual help, both to each other and to their Alma Mater; to promote scholarship and to uphold the standards and ideals of MTSC. To this end the society tries to maintain the highest educational ideals, to foster fellowship, scholarship and achievement in educational work. Its members are expected to strive to build rather than to destroy, to help rather than hinder.

The requirements of membership are a scholastic standing of Junior or Senior rank with high scholarship, good personality and some ability in leadership. Membership is by election and initiation is held each quarter. The alumnae maintain a scholarship fund which is always in use. The fund is available to Tau Omicron seniors or to other girls meeting certain standards.

Up to the present, Tau Omicron has had 267 members who are scattered throughout the United States.

The Science Club is an organization for students majoring or minoring in science. It is also open to all students who are especially interested in science. This group meets twice every month for business and educational programs. Its programs are always very interesting for it often presents lectures by eminent men in the field of science. Members of this group attend conferences and lectures in Nashville on the varied subjects pertaining to this field of study. The aim of the science club is to promote advancement in the field of scientific research.

The organization has had gala social events and outings during the year. This year it sponsored "Stunt Night" which is always a big favorite with MTSC students.

Officers are: President, Glen Wakefield; Vice-President, Jack Gross; Secretary, Dean Drake; Treasurer, Joyce Calfee; and Sponsors, Dr. John A. Patten and John G. Parchment.

CHEMISTRY CLUB

The MTSC Chemical Association, though a new organization, is one of the fastest growing departmental clubs on the campus. It was organized in the Spring of 1951 and has grown from a membership of 15 to a membership of 15, thus giving proof that the club is rising fast to be on an equal standing with the old timers on the campus.

The purpose of the club is many fold. It unites professionally and socially chemistry majors and preprofessional students who take Chemistry as requirements for pre-dental, pre-med, pre-engineering, prenursing, and pre-pharmacy. The club through its well-planned activities inspires further interest in the field of Chemistry.

The club meetings are held weekly and programs which are given by the student members deal not only with Chemistry, but also with the various related fields. The students have discovered that by working together and discussing Chemistry, their actual laboratory and classroom work is supplemented, therefore preparing them for greater things ahead through Chemistry.

HOME ECONOMICS CLUB

The Home Economics Club is organized primarily for girls majoring or minoring in Home Economics. However, any girl especially interested in this field may become a member.

Mrs. Virginia Muncic and Miss Agnes Nelson are sponsors of the club, which offers to its members programs of both professional nature and personal interest.

INDUSTRIAL ARTS CLUB

The Industrial Arts Club strives to stimulate and further the knowledge of industrial arts above and beyond that taught in the classroom. Educational films of interest to the group are shown, and speakers prominent in the field of industrial arts are secured for the meetings.

The Middle Tennessee State College Industrial Arts Club is an affiliated member of the American Industrial Arts Association. Each year some of the members are chosen as delegates to attend the national convention of the association. Last year the MTSC club had the largest group at Chicago and this year sent more than 20 members to Detroit.

Once each quarter the members plan and carry through one of the best socials of any club on the campus.

INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS CLUB

If you enjoy tearing the world apart and putting it together again, this is the right club for you. International affairs are our interest.

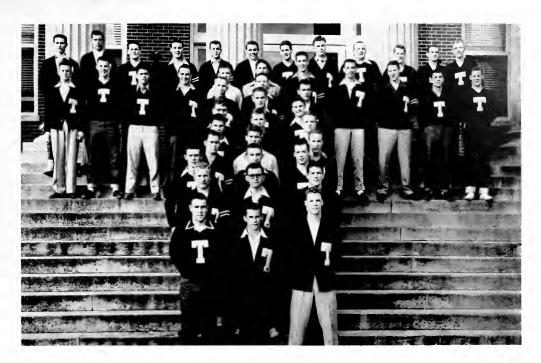

We have been privileged to have a number of guest speakers this year. A native Texan who has recently returned from the East with his Filipino wile is pictured with us. Our programs have featured a speaker from India and our own club members who have traveled abroad.

Our members are quite active in discussion and debate. But let it never be said that we argue!!! Our speakers have always encouraged questions and no one hesitates to ask them—even personal ones that may put them on the spot! The International Relations Club presents annual awards to outstanding club members and also to a social science senior major who has excelled in scholastic standing, leadership, general citizenship, contributions to the betterment of the school, promotion of Social Science as a course of study, and his anticipated usefulness to society.

"T" CLUB

"T" Club membership is gained by lettering in one of the major sports of the college, these being football, basketball, baseball, and wrestling. The club strives to improve and promote the standard of athletics.

This is one of the oldest and most active organizations on the campus. In the past it has sponsored minstrels, banquets, and dances to which it invites athletes from Tennessee high schools and high schools in adjoining states.

Each year the "T" Club holds its initiation at one of the basketball games. The initiates are dressed up in girls' bathing suits and made to put on a fashion show for the crowd.

Officers of the club are: President, Jim Lolton: Vice-President, John R. Smith; Secretary, Ralph Osteen; and Treasurer, Charles Smith.

BAPTIST STUDENT UNION

The Baptist Student Union functions as a link between the church and the college. The heart of BSU is the spirit of a Person, Jesus Christ, and in that Spirit the organization seeks to maintain a program of enlistment, social activities, and devotional growth.

A resume of the year's activities: State convention at Jackson; sponsorship of sunrise service at Thanksgiving; acquisition of the first full-time Student Secretary in January; observation of dedicated Vocations Week in February and Missions Emphasis Week in March; and engaging in the following Spring activities: State Spring Retreat at Camp Carson near Newport, Tennessee, and the Annual BSU banquet in May.

Officers this year have been: President, Sue Kirby; Membership Vice-President, Frances Nelson; Social Vice-President, Greta Moore; Devotional Vice-President, Mary Jewel McPherson; Recording Secretary, Jean White: Treasurer, Guy Norton; Pianist, Mary Evelyn Weatherly; Chorister, William Jones; Reporter, Bess Evans; Sunday School Representative, Marguerite Holland; Training Union Representative, Jane Gillum; YWA Representative, Bobbye Whitlock; Faculty Advisor, Mr. Roy Simpson.

CHURCH OF CHRIST

This group provides opportunity for the young people of the Church of Christ to participate in campus religious activities and offers them an opportunity for weekly study and worship among themselves and a close cooperation with local churches.

The organization was the outgrowth of a plan suggested by Oliver Cunningham, former minister of the North Boulevard Church of Christ, which is located directly across from the campus. This church has done much to encourage the group by providing speakers and socials throughout the year.

The group meets each Wednesday night at six o'clock. The attendance has been as high as 70 at some meetings, with an average of around 50.

In addition to bringing in leading speakers from the four Murfreesboro churches, the class is frequently conducted by young men in the group. Group members have charge of the song services, prayer and many of the programs. Present officers are: Tom Hill, president; Malcolm Rives, vice-president; and Dot Jones, secretarytreasurer.

METHODIST STUDENT MOVEMENT

MTSC prides itself on its religious emphasis and highly functional religious groups. The Methodist Student Movement has as its primary aim the promotion of Christian fellowship and the creation of a religious society on the campus among the Methodist students as well as other students. It attempts to bring more Christian experience, worship and study to the students. In this way its members are given the chance to worship among themselves and with the local churches. The group here on campus is connected with the Methodist Student Movement of the State. Officers of the group are: President, David Wise; Vice-President, Bobby Parks; Secretary, Lois Ann Hardison: Treasurer, Dimple Moncrief.

CUMBERLAND PRESBYTERIAN STUDENT UNION

The Cumberland Presbyterian Student Union was reorganized this year on our campus. The group meets each Wednesday night providing spiritual guidance for its members and at the same time promoting good fellowship among the Presbyterians.

The main accomplishment of the year for this group of worthy people was the provision of a speaker for Religious Emphasis Week held on our campus in April.

This group has good reason to be proud since this is the first active organization the Presbyterians have had for quite a while. Our hats are off to them.

Standing: Jane Templeton, Russell Smith, Peggy Ambrester, Secretary-Treasurer; Tommy Scott, Lois Stedman, Carman Gibson, Jimmy Haithcoat, James Bagwell, Mr. James Ransom, Sponsor; Thomas Swain, Price Harrison, Cornelia Swain, Worship Chairman; and Leland Jennings.

STUDENT CH

This organization is called the "uniting force" at MTSC. It acts in just this way to the various church denominations which have organizations on this campus. Its principal purpose is to combine all religious groups into a strong unified organization. It serves to make all of us, no matter what faith, one group joined together to worship our one common God.

A very wonderful thing about this organization is the lact that it exists not only in name, but in actuality. Each day the Student Christian Union sponsors noonday devotions for the students during their lunch hour, with the denominations taking turns leading the service. During the spring quarter each year the Student Christian Union sponsors a Religious Emphasis Week on the campus. Visiting speakers, usually young ministers and student workers speak and discuss with us problems that face youth today. We have always received great benefit and have been deeply inspired by the activities during this week, in which we spend more of our time pausing in the busy day to turn our thoughts toward God and to draw nearer to Him,

The Student Christian Union has always been a firm foundation for all of the religious groups on the campus, and we're sure it will continue through the coming years by becoming even stronger and influencing each student to give of his time and talents to God.

WOMEN'S ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

Aff girls who are interested in playing sports in college have a chance to do so through the WAA. They may participate in such activities as hiking, touch football, basketball, volleyball, badminton, ping-pong, and softball.

The WAA was organized on our campus to encourage interest in athletic activities and to promote good sportsmanship and a spirit of cooperation and fellowship. But its most important objective is to encourage in student life worthwhile activities and to suppress unwholesome tendencies.

The girls are divided in teams, usually according to their major. This year we have girls representing five departments—Science, Physical Education, Home Economics, Business, and Education.

Any girl interested in athletics is eligible for membership. Membership is attained by earning one hundred points in intramural activities and upon payment of a fifty-cent lee for the entire four years.

The council is elected by the members of the club. WAA officers this year are: President, Nancy Hill; Vice-President, Mary Ann Dickey; Secretary, Billie Dean Reed; Treasurer, Nell Banks; Intramural Manager, Jeri Brisby; Publicity Chairman, Elizabeth Hay. The girls are assisted by the fine faculty advisor, Miss Buleah Davis.

SPEECH ARTS SOCIETY

The primary objective of the Speech Arts Society deals with an analysis and investigation of international and domestic problems which are the issues of the day. Along with this, the society affords an excellent training ground in various phases of public speaking by direct application. The basic emphasis is on debating. However, oratory, impromptu and extemporaneous speaking, after-dinner speaking, and interpretive reading are among the different activities in which the members participate.

One of the major accomplishments of the Speech Arts Society was that of having the honor of establishing on our campus Pi Kappa Delta, honorary speech fraternity.

The Speech Arts Society usually sends debate teams to forensic tournaments throughout the South as well as State and Grand National tournaments.

This year the Speech Arts Society has been comparatively inactive, due to the need for an interested sponsor. However, the Speech Arts Society plans to begin again at "full speed" next year with the return of our regular sponsor, Lane Boutwell.

In the past six years the Society has had its share of honors. It was a runner-up in oratory at the National, a winner in alter-dinner in the State, a champion in oratory at the Southern, and one of the top twenty teams at the National.

PI KAPPA DELTA

"It shall be the purpose of this organization to stimulate progress in, and to promote the interests of, intercollegiate oratory and debate and public speaking by encouraging a spirit of fellowship, brotherly cooperation, and interest; and by conferring upon deserving candidates a badge of distinction, proficiency, and honor varied and graduated according to merit and achievement."

Eligibility for membership in this society shall be determined as follows: The candidate shall be a regular college student in good standing, or a graduate of an institution of college rank, and shall have represented his college in speech performances or at least five debates.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION CLUB

The Physical Education Club was organized October 28, 1917, for the purpose of providing opportunities for leadership training; promoting fellowship among students interested in physical education; helping raise the standards of the department; learning about organizations, publications, and opportunities in physical education; and supporting activities of the college to promote the general welfare of the students. Membership is open to all interested in physical education and recreation.

Activities include regular meetings twice each month, a carnival, Christmas party, bingo party, informal and square dances, and picnics. Fun night, which provides free recreation for all students, is sponsored each Tuesday night.

Delegates from the club have represented Middle Tennessee State at Southern and National conventions of the American Association for Health, Physical Education, and Recreation in Birmingham, Asheville, Dallas, and Atlanta.

ALPHA PSI OMEGA

The purpose of the Lambda Gamma Cast of the Alpha Psi Omega Dramatic Fraternity is to stimulate interest in dramatic activities at Middle Tennessee State College and to secure for the college all the benefits and advantages of the national organization as an honorary fraternity.

Membership in this fraternity may be attained by earning one hundred points in the various fields involved in the production of a play.

Every year the Alpha Psi has a float in the Homecoming parade, and most of the time it places in the top three. At the end of each school year, the club culminates its activities with its annual banquet at which the officers for the coming year are elected.

Ollicers of the fraternity arc: Cast Director, George Pidcock, Worthy Playwright, Mary Jo Dillon, and Business Manager, Eleanor Sheid.

ALUMNI BETA CLUB

You can always depend on the Alumni Beta Club, for they have proved their worth many times. The club is made up of students who gained the honor of membership either in the Beta Club or National Honor Society while enrolled in high school. A member in this organization must have the traits of good character, scholastic ability, and good citizenship. The aim of the Alumni Beta Club is to organize and establish projects essential to the maintenance of high scholastic standing and to further provide by means of programs and social activities, good entertainment for all former National Honor Society and Beta Club members with one another. This group carries out these plans to the very last letter.

AVIATION CLUB

The Aviation Club, reorganized this year by the students themselves, strives to give all interested in Aviation an opportunity to enlarge their knowledge of aeronautics, and help to gain more experience in the field of aviation. The club is open to both men and women.

While not all of the members actually fly, all are interested in flying, and are eager for the opportunity of learning about aviation.

The club is not limited to all work by any means. This past year the members have taken part in break-last flights, contests, cross-country flights, had the opportunity of hearing speakers representing some of the major airlines. The club participated in the National Intercollegiate Air Meet in St. Paul, Minnesota which was held in May,

The first social event of the year was the Open House held at the Airport during the intermission of our gala ROTG Ball.

The officers of the Club for '53 and '51 are: President, Eddie Moates: Vice-President, Howard Ray: Secretary, Sally Jackson: Treasurer, Joyce Calfee: Publicity Agent, Mary Lib Drewry: Sergeant-at-Arms, Bobby Osteen.

Last, but certainly not least, is the club sponsor, Miller Lanier, director of the Middle Tennessee State College Aviation Department.

BAND

The MTSC band is one of the finest in any Southern college or university. This is a fact that each student is very proud of. We owe much of our tame and fortune to this illustrious group. They are one of the best public relations conscious groups on the campus. The marching band received great recognition when it was the subject of a feature article in the Nashville Tennessean Magazine—an honor well deserved. Many of the problems of organization and maintenance were presented to the public. It requires a great deal of effort to keep any group functioning as nearly perfectly as the band.

This delegation makes many tours to the local high schools of Middle Fennessee, consistently increasing their popularity wherever they go. We are very proud of the demonstration exhibited by the band when they followed the Blue Raiders to Tennessee Tech on Thanksgiving. The majorettes and flag twirlers are the high stepping gals which lead the band and really do their stuff. This group offers the student body some very line music when they present concerts on campus and climax their splendid season by playing for graduation. The band is under the supervision of our new director, Mr. James Van Slyke, who has done a superb job.

The officers are: President, Janet Hooper: Vice-President, Thomas Darnell: and Secretary, Greta Moore. Members of the band, pictured are:

Flutes: Gloria Gattis, Dolly Titsworth, Elizabeth Nicholson, Eleanor Sheid, Mary Ann Warmbrod.

Oboe: Laura Ann Harris, Gay Jennings.

Bassoon: Robert Martin.

Clarinet: Jerre Ann Keeton, Millie Burkhart, Jerry Phillips, Tommy Tucker, Clyde Long, Lois Stedman, Rachel McCrary, Joan Patch, Sue Kirby, Durward Mc-Cord, James Haile.

Bass Clarinet: Jimmie Lou Tanksley.

Alto Saxophone: Tom Darnell, Eleanor Warmbrod, Joan Jernigan.

Tenor Saxophone: Greta Moore, Yvonne McFolin.

Baritone Saxophone: Ada Murrell.

Cornet: George Pidcock, Howard Rutledge, Franklin Chambers, Darrell Harmon, Doyle McNatt.

French Horn: Norma Follis, Doug Williams, Marguerite Cotton.

Trombone: Janet Hooper, Bill Arnold, Charles Wood, Joe Elder, Norma Littleton, Cornelia Swain.

Baritone: Jerry Pate, Jack Bagenstoss, Sarah Connelly.

Bass: Ray McGhee, Fred Boswell, Joe Smith,

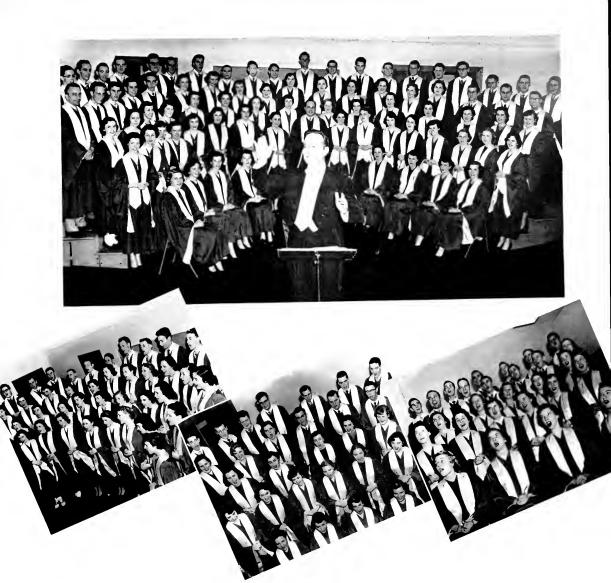

Percussion: Robert Bosworth, Neil Blair, Robert Cotter, Richard Haynes, Carolyn Shelton, Nancy Sholner.

First row: Marguerite Cotton, Maxine Chambers, Jane Gilliand.

Second row: Joyce Cooper, Marjorie Allen, Dolores Custer, Martha Sorrell.

CHORUS

The chorus is one of the largest organizations on the MTSC campus and one of the most industrious. Monday and Wednesday evenings they meet to practice—the practice which gives them perfection. The purposes of this group are to make improvements in vocal work and to provide musical benefit to the college community and Middle Tennessee. The chorus performs primarily the best works in a cappella literature. The ninety members of this organization give us a fine winter concert, a spring concert, many excellent chapel programs, and complete their successful season by singing for Baccalaureate. The chorus proudly wears its emblem of "good will ambassador." It makes trips to many of the high schools in Middle Tennessee—this year to Shelbyville, Fayetteville, Columbia, Lawrenceburg, West High, Hillsboro, and East. Mr. Neil Wright is the very capable director of this choral group. Officers of the chorus are President, Norma Littleton; Vice-President, Bob Martin: Secretary-Freasurer, Millie Burkhart.

ORCHESTRA

The music department at MTSC leaves no stone unturned. Along with a very fine band, chorus, and many other musical groups, we have the orchestra. The main purpose for this group is to give students who are interested in string instruments and music arranged for orchestras a chance to actually participate in a highly developed and functioning musical body, such as the orchestra. It offers first hand experience. Many of the members, through long hours of practice, have mastered the art of playing such instruments as the violin or cello, and have the opportunity to exhibit their perfected skill.

The orchestra offers the student body many excellent classical musical programs on campus. Through the efforts of Mrs. Rubye Taylor Sanders, we enjoy the orchestra—a group we are certainly proud to have as one of the members of our big happy tamily at MTSC.

Personnel of the orchestra include:

First violins: Rubye Taylor Sanders, concert mistress; Jean Molloy, Tom Darnell, Eugene Wiggins, Eleanor Sheid, Sara Nausley.

Second violins: Elcanor Adkins, Carolyn Comer, Laura Ann Harris, E. Mae Saunders, Jerrie Keeton, Jerry Phillips, Mary E. Warren.

Viola: Howard Rutledge.

Violoncelli: Patsy Powell, Phillip Howard, Janet Hooper, Gloria Gattis, Gay Jennings.

Double Basses: Greta Moore, Bettye Lynn Knight, Billie Arnold.

Flute: Elizabeth Nicholson.

Oboe: Jean Martin.

Clarinets: James Van Slyke, Joan Patch, Ada Murrell.

Bassoon: Robert Martin.

Trumpets: Buddy Chambers, Cecil Pigg.

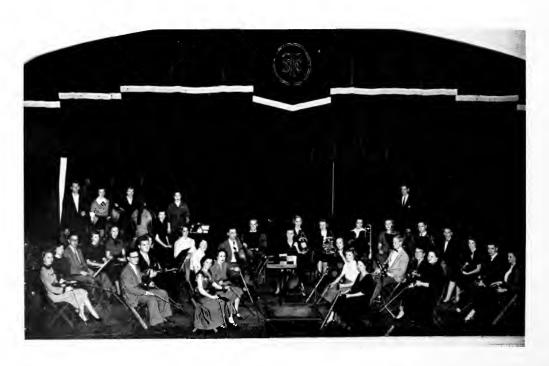

Horns: Norma Follis, Margaret Cotton.

Trombones: Norma Littleton, Joyce Kidwell.

Timpani: Doug Williams.

Piano: Jimmie Lou Tanksley.

Organ: Sue Kirby.

WOMEN'S TRIO

The three lassies who compose the Women's Trio have mastered the art of harmony. Through their training they cling to the principle that practice makes perfect. These song birds are a valuable asset to the field of music of the MTSC campus. The student body is looking forward to more public performances on campus by the Women's Trio—the song birds of the South.

Members of the Trio are: Gloria Gattis, Gay Jennings, Eleanor Sheid.

S A U N D E R I A N S O C I E T Y

For those who wish to enjoy one of the finer aspects of life MTSC affords the privileges of a line group who meet regularly, to enjoy classical music. The name of this group is the Saunderian Society. Miss E. Mae Saunders had the idea for organizing this dubso we have the name Saunderian Society in her honor. Membership is open to all who enjoy listening to "platters" made by some of the nation's top concert artists performing compositions of the famous music masters of the world. This group believes in better things in music for better living.

HARP SINGERS

The Sacred Harp Singers sing in the a cappella style of the Elizabethan period. Their songs have a very old and interesting history. A group of Southern people whose ancestry dates back to English origin began singing the madrigal type of song which the 18th century Englishman knew so well. These songs were collected into one volume and have come down to us today. There are many groups of Sacred Harp Singers in the United States today, and our particular organization is among the very best. At a convention in Atlanta they were selected to present the program.

The Sacred Harp Singers are also a very dependable group in spreading good will. They have traveled extensively threughout the state giving concerts. When they aren't so busy, they sometimes hid time to give the student body very interesting programs.

FUTURE TEACHE

The Future Teachers of America have six objectives:

- To develop among young people who are preparing to be teachers an organization which shall be an integral part of state and national education associations.
- To acquaint teachers in training with the history, ethics, and program of the organized teaching profession.
- To give teachers in training practical experience in working together in a democratic way on the problems of the profession and the community.
- 1. To interest the best young men and women in education as a life-long career.
- To encourage careful selection of persons admitted to schools which prepare teachers, with emphasis on both character and scholarship.
- To seek through the dissemination of information and through higher standards of preparation to bring teacher supply and demand into a reasonable balance.

The local chapter meets the second and fourth Thursday nights in each month. At each club meeting an educational, entertaining, professional, or a combination of these types of programs is presented after the routine business session.

Each year the club has a specific project. This year the Future Teachers of America Chapter at MTSC sponsored the State F.T.A. Convention which was held on our campus April 10 with an attendance of approximately one hundred and fifty students representing colleges throughout Tennessee. Top state education officials were present at this meeting as well as a representative from the National Education Association.

Outstanding members of the Future Teachers of America are awarded N.E.A. merit awards for their work in the local chapter. To receive this award the F.T.A. member must accumulate fifty points each year he is in the club. A point is given for each hour's work. At the end of the senior year the awards are made. Eleven seniors were presented these awards in 1953.

RS OF AMERICA

The local chapter is alliliated with both the Tennessee Education Association and the National Education Association. Each month all F.T.A. members receive the publications that these associations send out. Thus, its members are lamiliar with these prolessional organizations before they finish school and embark in their chosen career.

STUDENT ORGAN GUILD

The many students who are taking private organ instruction are those who make up the Student Organ Guild. These very talented people share their skill so that the other students are able to hear some very fine music. At practically every assembly program, one of the members of the group plays some soft strains above the hum of students filing in and out of the auditorium.

This group has the use of two very fine organs—one in the music department and the big organ in the auditorium of the administration building. The MTSC Student Organ Guild was one of the first groups of its type to receive a charter from the American Guild. The beautiful chimes which are connected with the organ in the main building send out melodious tones which can be heard all over the campus.

The officers of the Student Organ Guild are: President, Sue Kirby; Vice-President, Carolyn Shelton; Secretary, Greta Moore; and Treasurer, Gloria Gattis. Their laculty advisors are: Mrs. Neil Wright and Mrs. John Scott.

Members of this group are: Gloria Gattis, DeNell Agec, Janet Hooper, Sue Kirby, Greta Moore, Jimmie Lou Tanksley, Carolyn Shelton, Gay Jennings, Eleanor Sheid.

AGRICULTURE CLUB

The Agriculture Club is one of the very oldest organizations on this campus. Its history begins in 1927 when the college was still young. This group meets the second Monday evening of each month at seven o'clock. Besides having a social event each quarter, their members are afforded very good programs. Educational movies, which give the boys turther knowledge in coping with problems of farm life and activity, head the list of best liked programs.

The objectives of the "Ag Chib" are to promote agricultural education to encourage practical demonstration in farming, and to co-operate with and actually operate the college farm—which is a full-time job within itself. The members of this club are much concerned with modern methods and means of improving agricultural conditions. Agriculture today has taken on an entirely different meaning. Through research and study, it has been found that more and better products can be offered to the consumer.

Managing and operating a farm can be accomplished more successfully and economically by an adequate study of agricultural problems. Officers of the Ag Club are: President, Jimmy Tomlin; Vice-President, Richard Murphy; Secretary and Treasurer, Paul Heiss; Reporter, Thomas Kennard Hill; Sergeant-at-Arms, Knox Wright. The sponsors are: Dr. Clifford N. Stark, James N. Jaggers, and B. B. Gracy.

TRACK AND SABRE CLUB

The Track and Sabre Club has as its primary objectives; the improvement and orientation of its members; the creation and continuance of fellowship and understanding among the students of MTSC. Uppermost in its purpose it serves to further an understanding of reserve officer training. Each year the club sponsors a military ball featuring a "name" band, and its members elect an ROTC Queen. This year the ball was held in the Temicsee Room of the Student Union Building, with Ray Anthony's band furnishing the music.

The officers are: President, Loxie Dond; Vice-President, Bill Fandrick; Secretary, Bobby Cathey; Treasurer, Bill Cook. Sponsors: Lieutenant Colonel R. J. MacLean and Lieutenant Charles Rigler.

FOOTBALL

Although the Raiders may not have had as successful football season as anticipated they finished a season in which they had been impeded by frequent injuries to key men, by successively upsetting the dope to beat ETSC and then climaxing the season with a

Journeying to Jefferson City to open the season the Raiders won a costly 19-7 victory over the Carson-Newman Eagles. In the game Lunn was lost for the season, Stotser, Rather, and Young for varying periods.

The lollowing week the Raiders made their debut in OVC society, meeting Western Kentucky for the first time since 1911. The Raiders scored in the first lew seconds on a 17 yard pass from Smith to Stotser and held a 19-13 halftime lead which they watched the Hilltoppers overcome to finally win 33-19.

In their first home appearance MTSC took an 18-0 victory over Sewart Air Force Base with Dallas Cook and Delmas Whitten showing the most backfield power. Garner Ezell electrified the crowd with a last quarter 28 yard touchdown run from a hand-oil from Ernest Adams.

The Chattanooga Moccasins handed the Raiders their second defeat 39:19 in taking advantage of a series of breaks in the final quarter after a stubborn Raider team had kept the score even for three periods. Ken Duke, relieving the injured John Smith, proved to be efficient in this contest.

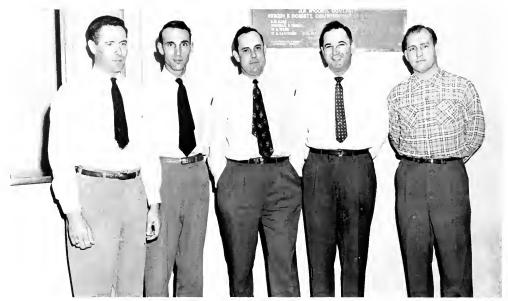

The Raiders scored in each quarter behind a marvelous air attack directed by Duke and a powerful running game led by Garnett Rather to beat. Froy State 33-7.

First victory in the OVC was scored off Morehead State 27-6. Again the Raiders scored early on a pitch out to Stotser and continued their jubilant march as Bobby Young rejoined the team to kick extra points following his long layoff with a head injury that had threatened to end his football career.

The long journey to Virginia the following week resulted in a 27-7 set-back at the hands of the Emory and Hemy Wasps in the worst played game of the season on the part of the Raiders.

Coaches Francis Riel. Elbert Patty. Charles Murphy. Charlie Greet, and Joe Black Haves.

Still seeking to shake oil the ill effects of injuries and the shock of the powerful Wasps the Raiders met an excellent Florence State team that outlasted MTSC in the final stages to win 31-18.

Murray's Thoroughbreds edged the Raiders 20-13 in an exciting homecoming contest. The highlight of this game was a 40 yard pass, longest of the season, from Rather to Gook, that netted a touchdown.

Finally back at full strength and rebounding from the series of three straight losses the Raiders went to Johnson City as a two touchdown underdog and knocked off the Buccancers of ETSC 28-14. In this game the Raiders shook off the "last half jinx" and scored all their points in the final two periods.

Cookeville Thanksgiving and came away a 19-7 victor in a game in which they throttled the air game of the Eagles and held their ground game to a minus 19 yards. The Raiders completely dominated the game as a team—with no outstanding stars—although the detensive unit was probably the most brilliant performer on the held that day.

Two members of the squad, Garnett Rather and Mitchell Jones, made the All-Mid-State college cleven. Rather, Young and Howard Alsup were placed on the All-OVC team with Alsup being named as captain of the Mythical team. The senior members of the squad participated on the All-OVC team in the service Bowl game in December.

BASKETBALL

GERALD JOHNSON

With one starter and four other lettermen left from the 1952 squad Coach Charles Greer opened the basketball season with the statement that "we are building for the future."

How well this was done is vividly demonstrated when the season record is reviewed. After losing the first eight games the Raiders found the winning combination and were victorious over such teams as Union, Sewance, David Lipscomb, the University of Chattanooga, Austin Peay and Memphis State. The team went into an overtime to lose a heart breaker to Morehead, twice threw a scare into Murray and played Eastern Kentucky a close game on the MTSC court.

TOM HOGSHEAD

Captain Gerald Johnson was the leading scorer on the team, hitting for 373 points of the team total of 1,622 for the season. Ken Trickey, sophomore guard, had the best shooting average on the squad and was placed on both the All-VSAC and the All-Ohio Valley teams. During the season the team had a 70.5 average per game, hitting 31 per cent of the field shots and 63 per cent of their loul tries.

With a team that was composed of eighty per cent freshman and sophomore members the prospects for 1951 are bright. Competition in the Ohio Valley is bringing national recognition to the Raider team members while the schedule next year will include some of the toughest foes in the Southeast.

BASEBALL

This year the baseball team is looking lorward to maintaining the fine record that lound it winning four VSAC championships in five years. With eight returning lettermen and an improved pitching staff the Raiders should have a good season.

John Brock, are twirler for the Raider squad, is playing for his third year. Captain Ralph Osteen, at third base and Glen Wakeheld, center helder, are making their last appearance in collegiate ball. The majority of the other members of the squad are sophomores and freshmen.

The Raiders have sent many notable players into professional ball. This year Bobby Osteen, whose 140 batting average led the team in 1952, passed up a pro-contract to protect his eligibility as an amateur. Last year Maxie Runion, Harry Gupton and Bob Veach went into professional baseball.

Playing last year for the Raiders are Glen Wakefield, John Brock and Ralph Osteen.

Lettermen from the 1952 team who are not back this season include: Harry Gupton, Bob Searcy, Charles Lyons, Bobby Hardison, Marion Collins, and Ed Price.

Captain Ralph Osteen suggests that brother Bob will have a tough job maintaining a .140 batting average he made in 1952.

TENNIS AND GOLF

Spring sports at MTSC leature a wide range of opportunity for individual and team competition. Emphasis on individual ability in tennis and golf make these sports highly competitive.

The 1952 net team was one of the most successful in recent years, winning the right to represent the western division of the VSAC in the championship playofl. Coach Horace Smiley handled the 1952 tennis team which defeated such rivals as TPI. Florence, and David Lipscomb. Bill Clark was captain of the team.

Team members were: Garnett Rather, Bill Clark,

Taylor Rayburn, Gene Porter, Ross McClain, and Jimmy White, manager.

Coach Elbert Patty will have the major portion of his golf team back this year. Last year the team defeated David Lipscomb to lay claim to the VSAC title and proved they would be a strong contender in OVC competition by downing the Western link team.

Lettermen are John Raymond Smith, Sammy Smith, James White and Billy Strickland.

WRESTLING

One of the most successful athletic teams on the MTSC campus this year was the wrestling squad coached by Joe Black Haves. In the third year of intercollegiate competition the matmen won seven, lost two and tied one match, deleating such great teams as Vanderbilt and the University of Chattanooga, to end the season by being runners-up in the Southern intercollegiate tournament.

G. P. Long won the Southern 137 pound division championship. Billy Porterfield, David Leverette, John Nickens and Billy Hix were runners up in the Southern tournament. Glen Carson had the best overall record for the season, winning seven, drawing one and losing two matches. He was closely pressed by Billy Hix, jovial and colorful freshman heavyweight, who won six matches.

Billy Porterfield succeeds Lein Vaughan as captain of the Raider wrestling team. With only two members of this year's squad scheduled to graduate the team next year should be a strong contender for Southern championship honors.

Members of the 1952 squad are, first row: Billy Porterheld, William Jones, Glen Carson, G. P. Long, David Leverette, Price Harrison, and Captain Lem Vaughan.

Second row: Wayne Newby, Dong McDonald, John Fine, John Nickens, Frank Dillard, Billy His.

INTRAMURALS

MTSC has a highly organized and functioning intramural program headed by Miss Davis and Coach Hayes. The girls are most active in this program. They participate in sports such as basketball, table tennis, volleyball, softball, touch football and badminton. The teams were organized as to their majors. Business, Education, Physical Education, Home Economics and Science make up the intramural program. The program is conducted by the Women's Athletic Association. It provides physical development as well as growth in sportsmanship. Competitive spirit being very high, the various teams clash for the championship titles and winning honors.

In the pictures, as you can well see, the range in the program certainly takes advantage of the lacifities located in our Physical Education Department. In the above picture we see Bess Evans and Nancy Hill engaged in a table tennis game. Next, the Science group are engrossed in a hotly contested volleyball game with the Home Ec. girls. From the looks of things, the score is close. On our right are the luture pros. The basketball teams are trying their best to double their points and win the championship. That's Ken Duke at the punching bag. Keeping in shape for lootball, no doubt.

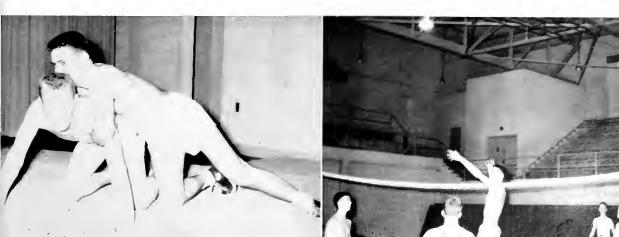

Coach Hayes has further developed the program of boys' intramural sports which includes a system giving the championship to the team with the highest number of intramural points for the entire year. The purpose of his program is to promote and govern the intramural program for boys. The teams are eight in number, and are made up of all male students enrolled in school. Each team has a captain who is automatically a member of the intramural board. It is the duty of the intramural board to decide and settle all issues which are not covered in the rules.

Swimming has been added to our campus just during the past year. The girls certainly enjoy this advantage as you can see at your right. It's a group of WAA girls taking a relaxing dip.

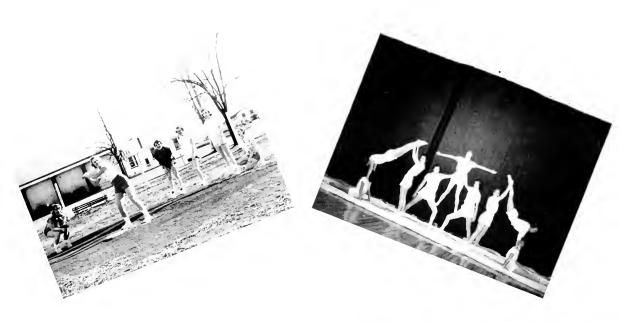

Below is a sport which has taken the campus by a whirl, intramural wrestling. This sport is fun and attracts many fans. Below Bennet Rambo prepares to hold Al Evans to the mat in a rough and ready match. The Volleyball Match is about to end just as a White team man kills one for his team.

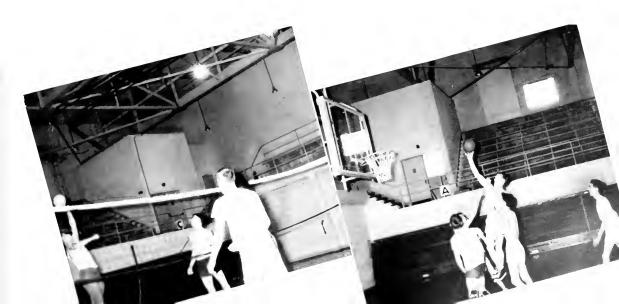

Bobby Newby gets set to slam one to his opponent in an intramural table termis match, above, as the birdie is swatted over the net to finish a badminton game in the second picture. In the center pictures the Jones Hall girls prepare for a successful season of softball, while the WAA girls learn the art of tumbling to complete their intramural training. On the right we have the championship girls badminton contest. Denelle Agee successfully defeated Joyce Callee for the winning prize.

Although camping is an ancient sport, it is something new on the campins. Coach Riel has installed the sport in the camping course which he offers in the Spring and Fall. During a three day camping trip, which highlights the sport, the students fish, cook, swim, and learn all the tricks to living with nature. This sport, like the other intranutrals, has as its objective to merely have tun.

The boys have tun playing basketball and volleyball. The winning team, which collects the most points, will receive the trophies at the end of the year. Yes, intramurals have come a long way and yet there are many more fields to be added as time passes, all devised for the purpose of developing better college students.

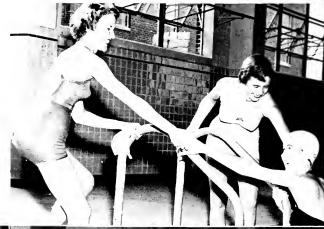

SWIMMING CLUB

The Aquatic Club was organized during the fall quarter of this year for the purpose of offering recreation in the field of swimming and training in water safety. All girls who are interested and can pass the rigid entrance exam are eligible for membership.

During the spring quarter, the members of the club produced and gave a water pageant—the first of its nature at this school. Mrs. Betty Littleheld, sponsor of the club, very ably directed the production and received much praise for her work.

Jovec Cooper, president: Nancy Sholner, vice-president: and Martha Sorrell, secretary-treasurer, officiate at the weekly meetings,

Shown in the pictures at the bottom of the page arc some girls enjoying the adequate facilities provided by our new swimming pool.

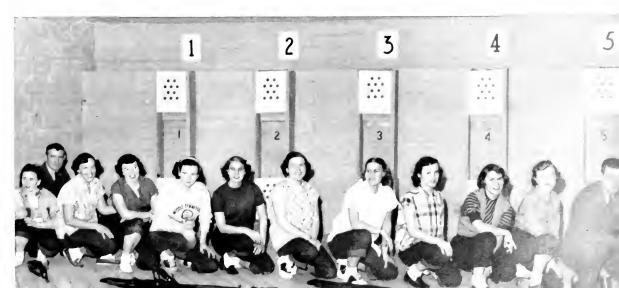

RIFLE TEAMS

Organized as an inter-collegiate sport in 1952 by Lt. Charles Rigler of the ROTC staff, the MTSC rifle teams have been an integral part of the athletic program of the college. The athletic committee has designated it as a minor sport for which athletic awards may be made.

Members of the boys team pictured are Paul C. Heiss, Donald Justice, Hutton S. Brandson, David Singer, Charles Robertson, Jimmy Hightower and John R. Browder. The team is coached by M/Set.

Adolph C. Westerling and fires in competition with both college and prep school ROTC units—maintaining a uniformly high rank.

Girls have proved adept with the .22 caliber also. Organized and managed by Lt. Rigler and coached by M/Sgt. Wilbur Pinkerton, the team members pictured are Jean Morrison, Sergeant Pinkerton, Bennie Heiss, Fredia Heiss, Mary Killen, Martha Ricks, Jean White, Marguerite Holland, Betty Laylor, DeNelle Agee, Cathy Knight and Lieutenant Rigler.

Our Very Own

AMERICAN COLLEGE STUDENT LEADERS

This group of students were selected because they are considered as the outstanding leaders on the campus. Their names were sent all the way to Florida to be voted upon. They were selected because of their outstanding record of leadership in their classes and extra-curricular activities. This group can certainly be commended for achieving this great honor.

They are pictured left to right:

Who's Who

IN AMERICAN COLLEGES AND UNIVERSITIES

It is with much pleasure we present to you the twenty-two members of the Senior Class who were chosen to be listed in WHO'S WHO IN AMERICAN COLLEGES AND UNIVERSITIES. This group is composed of students from all over the country who have gained recognition through their outstanding teadership, scholarship and cooperation in extracurricular activities and service to their school. Selection of nominees is conducted by student-facultyadministration participation. This is indeed an honor. We congratulate those honored.

COURT OF BEAUTIES

This year we initiate, with pleasure, the very first Campus Beauty section of our yearbook,

The beauties were elected from the lour classes, and the lovely pictures you see on this page and the lollowing pages were submitted to a disinterested businessman who selected one as the most beautiful.

She was crowned Midlander Queen at our Christmas

Dance, which is to be an annual affair.

It is with much pride we introduce you to our queen, Miss Peggye McQuiddy and her court of beauties: Margaret Coleman, Dean Hopkins, Joyce Garner, Betty Harrison, Sally Scott, Millie Burkhart, Joyce Callee, Catherine Powell, and Louise Gribble.

AMERICAN FARMER

Paul Heiss was presented the American Farmer Degree this year. Paul, a Sophomore, hails from Soddy, l'ennessee. He was indeed honored when this award was presented to him by the national officers of the Future Farmers of America. Congratulations are extended to Paul for this honor he carned by significant contribution to the Future Farmers of America.

It is only litting at this time to recognize ten of our students who were selected to serve on the welcoming committee for the annual state Future Teachers of America convention. It was indeed an honor for our campus to play host to the convention members representing FTA Chapters on college and high school campuses throughout the state. The committee members are as follows: Standing, Kenneth Harris, Euple Gilbert, Ruth Youree, Chairman, Jane Gillum, William Maggart and Peops Ambrester

William Maggart and Poggy Ambrester.
Seated are: Poggy Marlin, Marie Smith, Hugh Mc-Farlin and Margaret Tucker.

ECONOMICS AWARD

Price Bennett shown in picture at left was awarded the Economics Award for outstanding ability in the held of Economics. Mr. Bennett is very deserving of the award and has indeed gained the honor and privilege of winning it.

MISS HOME EC

Ruth Yource was chosen by her Home Economics classmates as the outstanding member of that department. Her hard work, her loyalty, and her winning personality account for the merit with which she won such a distinguished honor.

N.E.A. MERIT AWARDS

N.E.A. Merit Awards are made on the basis of the amount of work done by a member of the Future Feachers of America. Those who receive these awards must have attained two hundred points by the end of his senior year, or an average of fifty points per year.

Points are awarded for serving on committees, being chairman of a committee, or an officer of the club. Those who received the award this year are, first row, left to right: Margaret Tucker, Dorothy MacLean, Dan Warmbrod, Robert Cotter, Linda Denning, Betty Frances Taylor, Second row: Guy Norton, June Renager Tucker, Norma Littleton, Ruth Youree, Euple Gilbert.

Much to our disappointment we could not have pictures of all our students receiving their Master of Arts degree this year.

Among those who will receive degrees in June or August are: Opal G. Dillard, William R. Drye, John Edward Hale, Jr., Edell M. Hearn, Joe W. Higgins, Albert C. Jewell, Foster B. Leighton, Gertrude B. Link, George T. McPherson, Elizabeth C. Parker, Joe Troop, William Stone Wiseman.

ORCHIDS

In appreciation to those who helped make our production possible, at this time we wish to say thanks:

To the various members of the stall who simply "pitched in" and lent a helping hand when we were behind schedule.

To Mr. Beeler Smotherman, Mr. L. D. Bandy, James White, Barbara Witham and Hernon Fox for making our pictures.

To Dr. Guy Battle and Mrs. Battle for their cooperation in copyreading.

To the secretaries in Mr. Judd's office for being so nice when we presented hundreds of names for information to them.

To Mr. Sloan, our sponsor, for his guidance and assistance.

To McQuiddy Printing Company and Capitol Engraving Company for their kind patience and understanding of our mistakes and late copy.

To our advertisers for their assistance in making our yearbook possible.

And lastly, to the MTSC student body for their cooperation.

We are indeed grateful to each of you who played a role in the development of our MIDLANDER.

Again we thank you.

It is finished. We turn to leave, only to glance back for one last look at the campus we have known as home for the past four years. We wave good-by to all our friends, and slowly turn to walk away, bracing ourselves to take our place in the world, and knowing we shall never forget the wonderful years here at MTSC.
